A mother may breastfeed her child in any location, public or private, where the mother and child are authorized to be present.

CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE SECTION 43.3
Employers are required to provide breastfeeding employees:

- A reasonable amount of break time to express breastmilk for the child.
- A private place, other than a bathroom, that may be used to express breastmilk.